Throughout his thirty years in public service, Harford County Executive Barry Glassman has been recognized for outstanding character, service and leadership. His record as a fiscal conservative includes promoting rural values and steadfast protection of Harford County's land and water resources.

Barry Glassman has family roots in the county dating back to the 1800s. Raised on a small farm, he joined the Level Volunteer Fire Company at the age of 16 and later graduated from Havre de Grace High School and Washington College. As a college senior, he was awarded the prestigious Henry Catlin 1894 Medal for outstanding scholarship, character, leadership and citizenship.

Barry Glassman began elected public service in 1990 representing the northern district on the Harford County Council for two terms, including service as council vice president. In 1998, he won a seat in the Maryland House of Delegates. He chaired the Harford Delegation for many years until the late Sen. Bob Hooper recommended then-Del. Glassman as his replacement in the state Senate. He was honored in 2009 with the Senator William H. Amoss Memorial Legislative Award for outstanding service to the Maryland State Firemen's Association.

Elected to the Maryland Senate in 2010, Barry Glassman served as Senate chair of the Harford Delegation, co-chair of the Legislative Fire and EMS Caucus and a member of the Senate Finance Committee. He completed the 2010 Emerging Leaders Program at the University of Virginia.

While serving as Harford's seventh county executive, he was appointed by Gov. Larry Hogan to the Maryland Economic Development Corporation (MEDCO) Board of Directors and also elected to the 2015 Board of Directors for the Maryland Association of Counties (MACo). Recent recognitions include a United Way Lives United Leadership Award from United Way of Central Maryland and induction into the Maryland State Firemen's Association Hall of Fame.

A longtime supporter of Harford County 4-H, County Executive Glassman continues to raise a small flock of Katahdin sheep. He lives on a small sheep farm in Darlington along with his wife Debi and their son Jordan.

CPWN 20th Anniversary Update

Congratulations are in order for our speaker at our 20th Anniversary Celebration, Jenna Bush Hager!

Jenna and husband Henry welcomed their second child on Thursday, August 13th – and gave her a special family name.

"Welcome to the WORLD Poppy Louise Hager—named after my darling Gamps who went by Poppy during his childhood," Jenna noted. This is their second child, a daughter Mila is age 2.

Our 20th Anniversary Celebration will take place on April 27, 2016 at Water's Edge in Belcamp. This special event will feature a full course sit down dinner with pre-dinner cocktails and a special after dinner surprise.

Jenna will present the topic: Making a Difference: How the Power of Compassion Changes Lives.

Jenna Bush Hager is a contributing correspondent on NBC's Today Show and an editor-at-large for Southern Living magazine. She is also the author of The New York Times best seller Ana's Story. Jenna remains involved with UNICEF and is currently the chair of its Next Generation initiative, which is dedicated to reducing childhood deaths around the world. She holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Texas and is also co-author of the children's book Read All about It!

Details and Sponsorships at a later date!!!!

Barbara Przybylski, Chairwoman

Dear CPWN Members,

The Fashion Show Committee volunteers are instrumental in making our event a success year after year. We have several sub-committees, with various responsibilities needed to assist with a smooth delivery of our Fashion Show. If you are interested in helping to sell raffle tickets or help with our silent auction, we would love for you to join us. Any time you can give, would be greatly appreciated. Feel free to contact Mary Ann Bogarty- mabogarty@harfordbank.com for more information.

This year's theme for our 17th Annual fashion show fundraiser is "A Winter Wonderland". It will be held on Tuesday, October 13, 2015 from 5:30-9:30 at Richlin Ballroom. Back by popular demand, Stephanie Cassedy will be leading our Fashion sub-committee and has promised a fabulous set of fashions again this year. Stephanie and her team are diligently working to secure both male and female models and match each model with the selected vendors. As always, we will be featuring a wide variety of clothing appropriate to all shapes and sizes. The models will also be featuring trendy accessories and eyewear.

Join us to find out what the latest and greatest trends will be! Will it be bold, subtle, plaid or leopard print? Who knows..... we look forward to seeing all of you at the show on October 13!
