Featured Speaker:

Jenna Bush Hager

Author, Philanthropist,
TV Personality, Magazine Editor

Jenna Hager is a contributing correspondent on NBC's Today show and an editor-at-large for Southern Living magazine.

She is also the author of The New York Times best seller Ana's Story: A Journey of Hope, which she wrote after traveling to Latin America in 2006 as an intern with UNICEF. Ana's Story is based on the life of a 17-year-old single mother with HIV, who struggles to shield her child from the life she had of abuse and neglect. Hager remains involved with UNICEF and is currently the chair of its Next Generation initiative, which is dedicated to reducing childhood deaths around the world.

Hager holds a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Texas at Austin. She is also co-author of the children's book Read All About It!

Hager is the daughter of former U.S. President George W. Bush and First Lady Laura Bush. In 2008, she married Henry Hager.

CPWN Giving Policy

The following is the Policy of Giving adopted by the Board of the Chesapeake Professional Women's Network:

CPWN supports charities based on the organization's promotion or involvement in causes of women and families that pertain to women in the workplace.

If you believe that your organization is a 501(c)(3) organization that falls within CPWN's policy of giving, please submit a request for donation explaining how your organization meets the policy. Please include specific information about how the funds would be used in fulfillment of this mission.

The request must be on your organization's letterhead and must include your tax identification number along with your exemption status. Please send to the following address:

Chesapeake Professional Women's Network
PO Box 654
Bel Air, MD 21014

For your information, the Chesapeake Professional Women's Network is a networking organization that does limited fundraising for charitable purposes in accordance with the policy. We do not guaranty any donation as a result of your request.

Please note that requests for funds raised from the CPWN Fashion Show must be received by November 17, 2015. Thank you.
